FIRST ROW: Margaret McKee, Martha Darnold, Jini Froyd, Marcia Woodward, Georgia Graham, Jo Ann Marvick.

For the first time in a number of years, the Villisca High School has organized a student council. Through research from neighboring schools, the students, with the help of the principal, Mr. Anderson, established a Constitution for the Villisca Student Council. The student body then voted for the establishment of a student council and its members. There were two elected from each class and five ex-officio members including the senior class president, the junior class president, the editor of the Volcano, and the two junior high class presidents.

Class History

Few of you really know, but many would like to know, just what was what with the class of '50 between the years 1937 and 1950! It is my duty as class historian to relate a few incidents of those "lost years"! I hope they will bring fond and amusing memories to the minds of many!

As we look back to the warm day on September 1, 1937, and see some of our little classmates as sweet, innocent youngsters, we wonder how it happened that they "be" what they are today! A few of the ones whom we remember are: James Antisdell, Betty Dee Askloff, Mavis Black, Duane Darnold, Billy Joe Johnson, Dicky Nease, Veva Nisely, Don Patterson, Gloria Pederson, Alice Pierce, Jo Ann Shaver, Pat Sierp, Fred Stickler, and Marcia Woodward. We had a very "hep" rhythm band in our kindergarten featuring cymbals, tambourines, triangles, and drums! Some of the highlights of the year were playing at Mrs. Abbey's "Ladies Aid," vaccinations for small pox and eating those delicious crayolas!

In the first grade our happy little throng was joined by Norma Jean Miller and Darwin Cartwright, with Miss Carpenter as the receiver! (Poor woman!)

We seemed to be learning a small amount of our P's and Q's; so the teachers held a conference and decided to let us go on to the second grade. Our class was enlarged this year by Bonnie Wills, Thomas Kelly, Donna Gindlesperger and William ("putt-putt-deer-deer") Viner! We were such a large and brilliant group that they had to divide us into two classes with Miss Meyers and Miss Osen as the teachers! (By the way, after a year's experience with our class, Miss Osen decided nothing could be worse, and joined the "WAC's"!)

In the third grade we were joined by Joyce Retland with Miss Taylor as our teacher! We spent most of our leisure time carving various animals out of soap! Jerry Greenfield was nearly mad trying to decide between Marcia and Norma as his "one and only"! We lost Darwin Cartwright to another school!

We now were honored by being allowed to climb the stairway to the second floor, the fourth grade. We were joined this year by Deloris Hedstrom and Joyce Case. Dicky Nease threw his money away wildly on suckers for Jini! (Spendthrift!)

In the fifth grade, we gained three new members and lost three. We gained Carolyn Shepherd, Leo Lowenberg and Lawrence Hendry and lost Alice Pierce, Bonnie Wills, and Gloria Pederson. Miss Hanson was our teacher, who loved having after school spelling classes. Jim Hyde and Carolyn Shepherd seemed to be the number one "lovers" this year!

We gained one new classmate, Benny Gage, in our sixth year, but lost Deloris Hedstrom. A small incident concerning a white ribbon proved surprising circumstances, didn't they, Nort and Benny? Miss Miller was our teacher this year, when we thought we were the "rulers of the grade school"!

Our big moment had finally arrived! We went five blocks farther and arrived at the high school! Of course, we were only seventh grade members, but then we thought we were pretty hot stuff! Our minds were changed two weeks later---shy, you know! We welcomed Delores Murphy, Bill Perkins, and Kenny Oltmann into our class with Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Brenton as our teachers! The "Tom Sawyer" operetta was the outstanding event of the year! (It was the first time any of us knew how it felt to be a sunflower!) We lost Jerry Greenfield and Betty Askloff to another school!

At last!! Kings of Junior High! We reached the eighth grade and acquired a great number of new students, but lost Don Patterson. They were Jerry Ziehe, Eldon Gustafson, Darwin Kendrick, Dick Focht, Alice Cordes, Gwen Baker, and Beverly Day! The "slave drivers" this year were Stone and Miss Miller. Sports were quite the thing this season and our Junior High teams proved very successful! We had an enjoyable eighth grade party in spite of the fact that it poured down rain and most of us walked home barefooted! We graduated from Junior High with a very simple, but impressive, ceremony. High school----here we come!!

On September 1, 1946, a group of "greenies" looked about as they had on September 1, 1937 and ascended the stairs of the high school to be pushed around by the upper classmen! We lost Leo Lowenberg and Billy Joe Johnson, but in return we gained Art Anderson, Lila Bauer, Duane Bergren, Bertha Brown, Alice Chalmers, Dwight Else, Gail Hampel, Donna Hensel, Richard Hart, Betty Lee, Paul Poston, Genevieve Roberts, Marjorie Schaffer, Kenny Starlin, Ruth Stahnke, and John Van Fosson----and also regained Deloris Hedstrom, Darwin Cartwright, and Mavis Black, whom we left somewhere! Finally we overcame some of our "greenness" and won the ticket sales at the school carnival, much to the Seniors' distress!

We ascended the second step of high school and became "not-too-sure" Sophomores. This year we climbed our steps without John Van Fosson, Mavis Black, Bonnie Wills, Paul Lehman, and Deloris Hedstrom, but gained Bob Taylor, "Pesty" Bryson, Keith Moore, Frankie Corben, and Bob Lorenz. We, as most Sophomores, were still a little unsure, but took part in school life as much as possible!

Next we went up one more step to become "more confident" Juniors! Again we lost Darwin Cartwright, whom we tried to hold on to but couldn't, Bob Lorenz, Frankie Corben, Joyce Retland and Dwight Else. With the bad news comes the good----or----what's this?--- Jerry Greenfield had come back to stay! (We think!) We gained Jim Hyink, Elizabeth Schowalter, Olive Wilcoxon, and Marilyn Cronwall! Hats off to them! We gave a very fine Junior-Senior banquet this year which was enjoyed by all! (We think!)

Here we are!! Finally we take our last step to be the "get-out-of-my-way-here-I-come" Seniors! We never thought we would make it but here we are! This year we lost Elizabeth Schowalter, Veva Nisely, and Keith Moore, but we were fortunate to acquire "the Heffleingers"----, Clara and Don, and Velma Peterman. Out of the ones who started kindergarten way back in '37, there are only ten left! They are Duane Darnold, Richard Elswick, Joyce Enarson, Bill Fisher, Jini Froyd, Jerry Greenfield, Jo Ann Shaver, Pat Sierp, Marcia Woodward and Fred Stickler!

Although we've seemed difficult to handle and disgusting at times, dear teachers and fellow classmates, the years between 1937 and 1950 were the "best years of our lives!"

Class Song

(Tune of "My Buddy")

Years have passed since
first we met,
We loved our school, and we love her yet.
Dear schoolmates,
Old schoolmates--
No years quite so dear.

Now we're leaving dear
V.H.S.
We'll miss you all, we must confess.
Dear schoolmates,
Old schoolmates--
No years quite so dear.

Class Prophecy of 1950

An amazing invention has just been discovered by a member of the Senior class. A machine that enables us to whisk off into the future to see what has happened to the mighty class of 1950.

What have we here? It's a self-service gas station in the vicinity of Bethesda, run by none other than Bill Fisher. Who is this just driving up? Why, it's Duane Bergren, who is still running a taxi service for disabled Senior girls.

Jerry Ziehe, after eight years of marriage is well on the way to having his own football team with perhaps a few girl tackles.

Charles Atlas has just found a new model for his muscle factory. Richard Hart fondly known as "Baby Face" during high school days is the lucky one.

Betty Lee has finally finished the sweater she started knitting for Gilbert in 1950.

Donna Hensel who started her career as secretary of Y-Teens, is now working as secretary at the YMCA in Omaha.

Kenny Oltman, after going steady fifteen years with Jo Ann Shaver has decided she isn't after his money and has finally popped the question. He is awaiting the answer patiently.

Flash! Flash! Lila Bauer has become the first woman to win the 500-mile Memorial Day race at Indianapolis and has finally made the headlines of the Villisca Review.

Genny Roberts is still working as a secretary for a certain insurance company in Clarinda.

Girls, is your beauty slipping? It is? Then come to Fred Stickler's beauty salon in West Dickeyville.

Pat Sierp and Wayne Fast, after ten years of happy marriage, have decided to invest in one of the largest thriving grocery stores in Siola.

Kenny Starlin, who once starred under Reno Smith, has succeeded him as F. F. A. basketball coach.

After studying law for the past twenty years, Don Hefflefinger has just been elected Governor of Iowa. He and his lovely wife, Carolyn Shepherd, are making preparations to move into the governor's mansion.

Marcia Woodward, whose nickname was "Cookie" in high school, is busy making dog biscuits for Red Heart and Company.

James Lund, known in high school as Sam, the clean-up man, is now Chief street cleaner in New York City.

Clara Hefflefinger has finally got up nerve enough to dye her hair red. Now she's playing on the All American Redhead Team.

Roland Bryson, alias "Pesty," is being sought by the F. B. I. in connection with the $50,000 robbery of Dodson Jewelry Store.

Dorothy Andrew has just been elected Miss Milkmaid of the McAlpin dairy farm.

Joyce Emerson and Maurice Nevis are still running a taxi service between Clarinda and Villisca.

Stanley Laurel, of the very popular Laurel and Hardy, has just taken his fourteenth wife. The lucky one is Jini Froyd. They are planning a song and dance routine for a new movie.

Jinny Hyink is now assistant coach at Iowa City under head coach, Joyce Case.

Bertha "Bubbles" Brown and Olive "Oyl" Wilcoxon are now performing at Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe as burlesque dancers.

20: Seniors SeniorClass ClassWill ClassProphecy Chalmers,Alice Lynch,Jimmy Greenfield,Jerry Peterman,Velma Kendrick,Darwin Cronwall,Mel Taylor,Bob Morehouse,Dean Stahnke,Ruth Gage,Bennie Miller,NormaJean Perkins,Bill Cordes,Alyce Darnold,Duane Anderson,Arthur Baker,Gwendolyn Hampel,Gail Schaffer,Marjorie Focht,Dick Murphy,Deloris Baker,Scoop Poston,Paul Elswick,Richard Gustafson,Eldon Hefflefinger,Don Hart,Richard Anderson,Bill

Alice Chalmers, the woman daredevil, is now performing for Jimmy Lynch and his death dodgers.

Jerry Greenfield has just finished remodeling his coupe so he and his fiancée, Velma Peterman, can go to Arkansas to get married. There are rumors that he is making her pay two cents a mile for the trip.

Darwin Kendrick has just completed his 10,000th round trip to Clarinda.

Mel Cronwall, after her third divorce, has decided to settle down with Bob Taylor on his 14,000 acre chicken ranch west of Morton Mills.

Dean Morehouse is in New York, teaching Arthur Murray new dancing steps for his dancing class.

Ruth Stahnke has just been chosen Miss America of 1965.

Bennie Gage is chief wheel tightner in Norma Miller's motorcycle shop.

Bill Perkins, after three years of steady dieting has finally been accepted by Powers Models.

Alice Cordes has just been promoted as chief cook and bottle washer at Sierp's Oil in Villisca.

Buck Darnold is on his way to Central Africa as a missionary. As we all know, he got his start as Hi-Y chaplain.

Art Anderson and Gwen Baker are now co-owners of "Get you there in a jiffy," North Pacific Airlines. Art is the pilot and Gwen is the co-pilot.

Gail Hampel has just been unanimously elected mayor of Guss by all fifteen residents.

Marjorie Schaffer started out as a nurse in Clarinda but not making much headway; she is now working as gang nurse for some shady characters of Clarinda's underworld.

Dick Focht is earning his keep at the county poor farm in Stanton by raising rabbits.

Deloris Murphy and Scoop Baker, Jr. are now residing in Arizona making their living by manufacturing little "Shovels."

Paul Poston, who wore dark glasses all through high school was discovered by a talent scout in Red Oak and is now making a fabulous movie in Hollywood. Of course, he still wears dark glasses.

Richard Elswick has just become the President of the United States. He is the first president to be elected from Villisca.

Last, but not least, we see Eldon Gustafson as national president of the F. F. A.

As time runs out for the class of 1950, we hope that your future turns out as well as ours.

Class Will

We, the class of '50, being sound in body and not so sure in mind, have composed a will containing the things that have made us such an outstanding and memorable group. These little gifts, bequeathed to you, we hope will be received with warm hearts and outstretched imaginations!!

Don Hefflefinger bequeaths his statement of thanking all the Hi-Y girls (?), who elected him 1950 Valentine King, to next year's lucky fellow.

Richard Hart, by special request, wished to give his lately acquired name "Pretty Boy Hart," to young Bill Anderson. Not that he thinks Bill needs it.

21: Seniors SeniorClass ClassWill Greenfield, Jerry Marsh, Richard Bryson, Louise Gage, Bennie Elswick, Richard Anderson, William Sierp, Patricia Enarson, Joyce Cordes, Alyce Baker, Gwendolyn Roberts, Genevieve Froyd, Virginia Fidler, Cleo Ziehe, Jerry Patterson, Duane Schroeder, Delbert Taylor, Bob Fisher, Bill Westerlund, Gene Bauer, Ted Darnold, Duane Penwell, David Bergren, Duane Poston, Paul Enarson, Tom Murphy, Deloris Marvick, Jeanne Marvick, JoAnn Oltman, Kenneth Fisher, Betty Anderson, Arthur Shepherd, Larry Peterman, Velma Loghry, Russell Wilcoxon, Olive Smith, Gene Shaver, JoAnn White, Wendell Hefflefinger, Clara Murren, John Starlin, Kenneth Morehouse, Dean Weaver, Bernard Archer, Dale Stahnke, Ruth Hoyt, Laurence Lund, James Kendrick, Darwin Strickland, Jan Hampel, Gail

Jerry Greenfield wills his ability to knock girls' teeth out, to push girls and make them chip their ankle bones, and to literally kill off the girl population, to VHS's woman-hater, Dick Marsh!

Pesty Bryson, Bennie Gage, and Richard Elswick have all decided to give their beautiful, black, curly locks to Mr. Anderson! May miracles never cease.

Patty Sierp, Joyce Enarson, Alice Cordes, Gwen Baker and Genevieve Roberts will their ability to be charter members of the diamond club to the first five lucky girls to receive such in the future 1951 Senior class.

Jini Froyd gives her clear, sweet, soprano voice to Cleo Fidler. A happy medium is much to be desired in this case.

Jerry Ziehe wills his football ability to Duane Patterson. This should keep your Irish down, "Mousie." Just remember Jerry's slogan, "No matter how hard you fall, always come up smiling."

Delbert Schroeder is the fortunate receiver of Bob Taylor's long winded and fantastic stories. Here's hoping you have a little more luck, Delbert, in convincing your listeners.

Bill Fisher is very generous this year; he wills his height and long legs to Gene Westerlund and his quiet untalkative ways to Ted Bauer. I'm sure Gene will appreciate the height, but Ted will surely burst if he has to remain silent.

Buck Darnold bequeaths his basketball ability and eye for long shots to Davy Penwell. With this comes a package of grow-pup dog food.

Duane Bergren, our class president, whole-heartedly wills his susceptibility to childhood epidemics to anyone who doesn't like school but appreciates make-up work.

Paul Poston will part with his beautiful red hair-----lucky receiver is Tommy Enarson. It will be much cheaper than peroxide, Tom!!

Deloris Murphy gives her quaint way of blushing to the Marvick twins. You can divide it up, girls, there will be plenty to go around.

Kenny Oltman gives his theme song "So Tired," to Betty Fisher. Maybe this will slow her down a bit and give other people a chance.

Art Anderson bequeaths his side burns to Larry Shepherd. This should go nicely with Larry's long hair cut.

Velma Peterman wills her good-natured ways and pleasant smile to Russell Loghry.

Olive Wilcoxon gives her blond hair and girlish ways to Gene Smith!!

Jo Ann Shaver wills her dancing talents to Wendell White. May your size fourteen never falter, Wendell!!!!!!

Clara Louise Hefflefinger wills her straight black hair to John "Curly" Murren.

Kenny Starlin and Dean Morehouse will their quiet, shy and mannerly ways to Bernard Weaver and Dale Archer. It honestly works sometimes, fellows.

Ruth Stahnke wills her yen for reading her never-ending narratives to Laurance Hoyt. Sometimes it takes three class periods, Laurance, but eventually you'll get the job done.

James Lund bequeaths his nickname "Sam, the _____ clean-up (?) man," to all of those who ever have had ninth hour-----or is it KP?????

Darwin Kendrick wills his car to Jan Strickland. It will be harder to operate, Jan, but much cozier than a motor scooter.

Gail Hampel bequeaths with pride and joy his wavy hair is more appealing than the straight wiry type.

Jim Hyink wills his position as class treasurer to next year's Senior treasurer. This includes all bills, so Jim will have a clean slate.

Donna Hensel given her job of checking attendance to Buck Finkle. This should make skipping school a cinch, Buck!

Carolyn Shepherd wills her ability to jerk sodas to Carol Hess.

Dorothy Andrew wills her position as tallest girl of the Senior class to Zell "Shortstuff" Peterman.

Marjorie Schaffer wills her ability to work and save money to Mary Jo Bashaw. This should keep you well supplied with "greenstuff" to buy ice cream, candy bars, and cokes.

Norma Jean Miller wills her basketball technique to Mary Doll.

Eldon Gustafson bequeaths his ability to take out a certain Freshman girl to Bob Lindell. Seems they have common interests!

Dick Focht wills his little black book filled with Stanton phone numbers to the fellow who will pay the highest price for it!

Bill Perkins wills his seat in English literature to Delmar Wirth, but it comes with the understanding, Delmar, that you must promise to carry out one tradition. That of heartlessly crushing the feet of the girl behind you by lowering and raising you seat!!!!

Now all's fair in love and war-----so Bev Day gives her crushed toes to the unfortunate individual that sits behind Delmar Wirth next year!

Bertha Brown and Betty Lee bestow their willingness to work and spirit of co-operation to Frosty Patton and Ruth Ackerman. A word from the wise is always sufficient, kids!!!!

Marcia Woodward gives her position as editor of the Volcano to anyone who wants it!! This job includes working with THAT machine, paying all cleaning bills, and helping people find their lost religions!

Alice Chalmers bequeaths her ability to fall down on the basketball court and use the helping hand of her opponent before she can rise, to Janet Noble!

Fred Stickler gives his brilliant mind and gorgeous A's to the future 1951 physics class. May ye all shine!!!!

Joyce Case leaves her many fine contributions and worthy causes she has worked for in Y-Teens, to Shirley Sanford.

Lila Bauer bequeaths her piano playing ability to the most unrhythmical student in VHS-----Bobby Rambo!!!!!!

And Mel Cronwall leaves habit of falling upstairs instead of down, to anyone who's silly enough to try it.

Signed, Class of '50

Our Class Poem

We're the class of '50, forty-nine members strong,
And now we're writing this poem to help us say "So long!"
There are Buck, Don, and Bill,
Who won fame on the basketball floor.
And Jerry's feats on the gridiron,
Will live forever more.
Pesty, Dick, and Ellsie were also on the team;
They helped keep the Bluejays right on the beam.
Then there's Bob, Paul, and Duane B.,
With hair of red, they're easy to see.
There's Jini and Murph, Carolyn and Mel,
Four musical gals that ring the bell.
Kendrick and Greenfield are pals so true,
And Gail and Fred are inseparable, too.
Three swell couples are Art and Gwennie,
Jimmie and Joyce, and Norma and Bennie.
Richard, Eldon, and Kenny belong to FFA,
They're real boosters, and that ain't hay.
There's Roberts and Andrew, Bauer and Day,
They're four girls that always together will stay.
Of Alices we have quite a few,
Chalmers is one, and Cordes makes two.
Donna and Bertha ride the north bus,
They're two swell kids, who never make a fuss.
Two loyal pals are Kenny O. and Bill P.,
Wherever there's one, the other will be.
Marcia's a gal with lots of pep,
As a cheerleader, she's really hep.
Then we have James, better known as Sam,
And Dean, who can pass most any exam.
Two girls, Ruth and Olive, with pretty blond hair,
Where there's excitement, they will be there.
Joyce E. and Clara won basketball fame,
And Pat's a swell girl who'll soon change her name.
There's Velma, who joined our class this year,
And JoAnn, who's always full of good cheer.
Last, but not least, are Marj and Betty Lee,
Two truer pals you never will see.
That ends our class roll, and now we will say,
"Farewell" to the friends who behind us will stay.

Junior Class

The Junior Class officers are: President, Delmar Wirth; Vice-President, David Penwell; Secretary, Charles Crouse; Treasurer, Corliss Graham.

Under the direction of Miss Hankey and Miss Foster, the class set out to raise money for the Junior-Senior Banquet. Some of their projects were magazine sales, class play, and food sales.

Sophomore Class

The Sophomore Class had the largest enrollment this year. The class includes many industrious workers and good musical and athletic material.

The class officers are: Jo Ann Taylor, President; Norma Wilcox, Vice-President; Carol Hess, Secretary; Larry Shepherd, Treasurer. The class sponsors are Miss Rusk and Mr. Bynum.

Freshman Class

The Freshmen turned out to be "not too green" this year. With some of their ambitions already realized, they prove a "tough" match for the upperclassmen. The class boasts members in basketball, football, instrumental groups, vocal groups, and cheerleading.

Hi-Y Anderson, William Hyink, Jim Wirth, Delmar Penwell, David Hess, Carol

Y-Teen

As you can see, the Y-Teen membership was quite large this year. These girls were fine workers for their club and accomplished much during '49-'50. During the year the girls sold basketball pencils, operated the football stand, sold fireman's ball tickets, and held many social functions.

The Cabinet includes: (front row) C. Graham, M. Cronwall, D. Murphy, N. Miller, J. Froyd, J. Case, C. Shepherd, M. Woodward, J. Enarson, P. Sierp, B. Day, D. Hensel, and B. Embree.
Miss Edith Rusk and Miss Evelyn Hanky were the advisors.

Hi-Y

The Hi-Y officers under the direction of Mr. Anderson were: President, James Hyink; Vice-President, Delmar Wirth; Secretary, David Penwell; Treasurer, Carol Hess.

The homecoming dance, one movie serial, auto emblems, and dances after home games were all sponsored by the Hi-Y.

This organization's membership totaled forty-eight and was a member of the district and area Y. M. C. A.

Eight issues of the school paper were put out. Marcia Woodward served as Editor-in-Chief with Norma Miller as assistant, becoming Associate Editor the second semester.

Future Farmers of America

Officers for the year were as follows: Duane Bergren, President; Delmar Wirth, Vice-President; Vernon Lenhardt, Secretary; Richard Hart, Treasurer; Roland Bryson, Sergeant at Arms. Mr. Smith was the advisor.

Dramatics Club

The Dramatics Club was organized in December, 1949, by Miss Lina Foster. The officers were: President, M. Woodward; Vice-President, D. Penwell; Secretary, L. Bauer; Treasurer, C. Shepherd; and Publicity Chairman, M. Cronwall.

The club had two social events during the school year. A formal Christmas dance was held December 19, and an informal St. Patrick's day party was held March 17.

Three one-act plays were presented by the Dramatics Club on February 9.

Librarians

The officers for the year were: President, Beverly Day; Secretary and Treasurer, Jo Ann Taylor; Janice Hyink, Social.

There are twenty-seven members in the club. All the members work in the library except the seven honorary members who have served their four semesters. Miss Lina Foster was the advisor.

The first game of the season was held September 9, with Bedford in a non-conference game. The Bluejays pushed across two touchdowns to win the game 12-0. The high light of the game was holding Bedford for only two first downs.

September 16, the Bluejays journeyed to Atlantic where they played their first conference game. The Atlantic team proved too strong for the Bluejays eleven and therefore won 49-13. Jerry Ziehe scored once for Villisca on a eighty yard run, and Art Anderson caught a pass and ran fifty yards for Villisca's other touchdown.

The Bluejays were then engaged in a non-conference game with Lenox. The Jays were badly injured from the Atlantic game and unfortunately dropped this game 13-7.

The fourth game of the season was on September 30. This game was with a very strong Creston team, who pushed the Jays all over the field. The final score was 53-0.

October 7, the Orient Bulldogs defeated the Jays 13-21. The game was featured by Jerry Ziehe getting loose on the second play of the game and running sixty yards to score. This was a hard fought battle which the Jays should have won.

The next game on October 14, was with the highly rated Shenandoah team. They threw everything but the water bucket at Villisca and defeated them 63-13. The scorers for Villisca was Duane Williams and Jerry Ziehe.

The Jays then played Red Oak on the latter's field. In this game the Jays showed signs of good playing, but was defeated 13-6. Villisca's lone touchdown came just before the half.

Before a large homecoming crowd the Jays were defeated by Corning 14-33, October 28. Before the game Joyce Case was crowned Homecoming Queen. The score at the half was 14-14, but from then on the Red Raiders slowly pulled away.

The Bluejays of "49" ended the season by dropping their last game to Claifinda on Armistice Day. It was a very hard fought battle with the Jays coming out on the small end of a 14-0 count. This game ended the season with one win and eight defeats.

Basketball

The 1949-'50 basketball schedule included five non-conference and twelve conference games. The Bluejays won four out of five non-conference games and three out of twelve conference meets.

The season opened November 29 with the Jays playing College Springs here.

The Jays beat Corning 40-37 in the sectional tournament and met Griswold in the district tournament.

The girls opened the season under the direction of Coach Bynum, with La Follette taking over in the middle of the season. The Montgomery County Jamboree was held in Villisca this year, the Villisca girls playing Wales Lincoln the third quarter. The girls drew a bye for the first game of the county tournaments, and played Elliott the second game. Although the girls played one of their most outstanding games of the season, Elliott came out ahead, 48-26. The girls suffered another defeat when they lost to Stanton, 28-42, in the sectional tournament played on the Villisca floor. February 28 the entire squad was entertained at a chili supper held at Tim and Jane's Cafe.
