Senior Prophecy

We, the class of "52", have just returned from Madame Fifi's where we gazed through her crystal ball and viewed the future of the class of "51", our rivals at Nodaway High.

We see the President, Keith Jett, down in the Hillbilly land where he has picked up the career of singing. We may also mention that he sings with the "Barefoot Lads" from Arkansas. After several romances with Hillbilly girls he has finally settled down and married the former Miss Lila Hamman of Nodaway.

As we look further into our crystal ball we see Olin Hamman, who has just returned from a trip to the South Pole where he has been made Foreign Minister to the Polar bears.

Next our crystal ball shows us the latest addition to Jimmie Lynch's Death Dodgers. He is Don Wiley, who is believed to be the most daring of all, although he has already gotten two broken arms, one broken leg, and a broken nose.

We look still further into our ball and pick up Hawaii where we see a big battleship docked in the harbor after four months in battle off Korea. Whom should we see but Seaman 1st Class-Wayne Carmichael scrubbing its decks. After fifteen years of this he plans to retire and go home to his wife and nine children.

Now we see in our crystal ball General Don Williams sitting behind a desk in his headquarters located in Korea. He has just been placed in Command of the Armed Forces there, taking the place of General Ridgeway.

As we gaze even deeper we find Lila Hamman humming gaily as she sits in her velvet-lined apartment where her numerous maids are setting her hair; polishing her fingernails, and repairing her makeup while she is waiting for her latest suitor, Keith Jett.

Now off in the distance we see none other than Roma Guss, typist at the Nodaway Hardware, where she has been since her graduation. She seems to be progressing very rapidly, and within a few years she hopes to be manager.

Our crystal ball has fogged over but as it gradually clears, whom do we see but Leora Pond. She is leading lady of the show, "Life In The Big City", now going on its third week on Broadway right here in Nodaway.

The picture changes and we now see Ardis Williams. Although she is now married, she has not given up her favorite sport of basketball. She spends all her afternoons teaching her six daughters the game.

Last but not least, our crystal ball brings us the future of Wilma Everett. She is a model for the "Hinky-Dinky" Fashion Shoppe", and is modeling the most up-to-date styles in bathing suits and refuses to model anything else, unless of course it is the briefest of play suits. Her career as a model has been very successful. Her present employer at the "Hinky-Dinke" is her fiance, Mr. Floyd Ellis of Nodaway.

Dramatic Department

In addition to the customary Junior and Senior class plays, the department took part in two one-act play festivals.

The first, the four-school festival in which Sharpsburg, Nodaway, Gravity, and Conway were entered, took place at Sharpsburg, Friday, November 17.

The play chosen was "Uncle Tom's Crabbin", a Maxwell family play. The following were the cast:

Mr. Maxwell	-----	Clyde Williams
Mrs. Maxwell	-----	Wilma Everett
Uncle Tom	-----	Don Williams
Wilbur	-----	Wayne Carmichael
Betty Lou	-----	Shirley Pond
Connie	-----	Roma Jean Guss
Hercules, Wilbur's friend,	-----	David March
Mr. Parker, a business acquaintance,	-----	Keith Jett
Mrs. Parker	-----	Leora Pond

We received one-fourth of the money taken in at Sharpsburg.

On April 18, the play was given here at home to make enough money to take the play to the Annual Drake University Play Festival in Des Moines. Some of Mrs. Gripp's music group and a few of Mrs. Sanford's third and fourth graders gave numbers to make a full evening's entertainment.

On Friday April 20, the play was given in the University Theater.

The following made up the cast:

Mr. Maxwell	-----	Clyde Williams
Mrs. Maxwell	-----	Virginia Garey
Uncle Tom	-----	Don Narigon
Wilbur	-----	Wayne Carmichael
Betty Lou	-----	Shirley Pond
Connie	-----	Cheryl Agnew
Hercules	-----	David March
Mr. Parker	-----	Loren Agnew
Mrs. Parker	-----	Phyllis Ridnour

We were proud of the fact that our play rated above average, in competition with schools of the same and larger enrollments who presented plays the same evening.

We should like to express our appreciation to Mrs. Gripp and the music department, Mrs. Sandford and her pupils for contributing entertainment at our plays; and our thanks to those who have loaned us properties for use in our plays, and to those who took cars for transportation to Sharpsburg and Des Moines.

Music

Last fall every high school girl in Nodaway Consolidated went out for music in the Girls' Glee Club. Although several girls soon dropped out, our music casualties were few and we are closing the year with 18 girls. The are: FIRST SOPRANOS - Mary Lou Walter, Joyce Barker, Shirley Pond, Janet Guss, Ruth Ellis; SECOND SOPRANOS - Virginia Garey, Cheryl Agnew, Janis Hendrickson, Joan Griffith, Phyllis Ridnour, Mary Scanlan, Betty Ross; ALTOS - Wilma Everett, Elsie Mae McCuen, Leora Pond, Marilyn Odson, Mae Zuber.

Girls in the Trio were: Mary Lou Walter, Virginia Garey, Wilma Everett. This Trio plus 3 more girls - Joyce Barker, Cheryl Agnew, Elsie Mae McCuen - composed the Sextette.

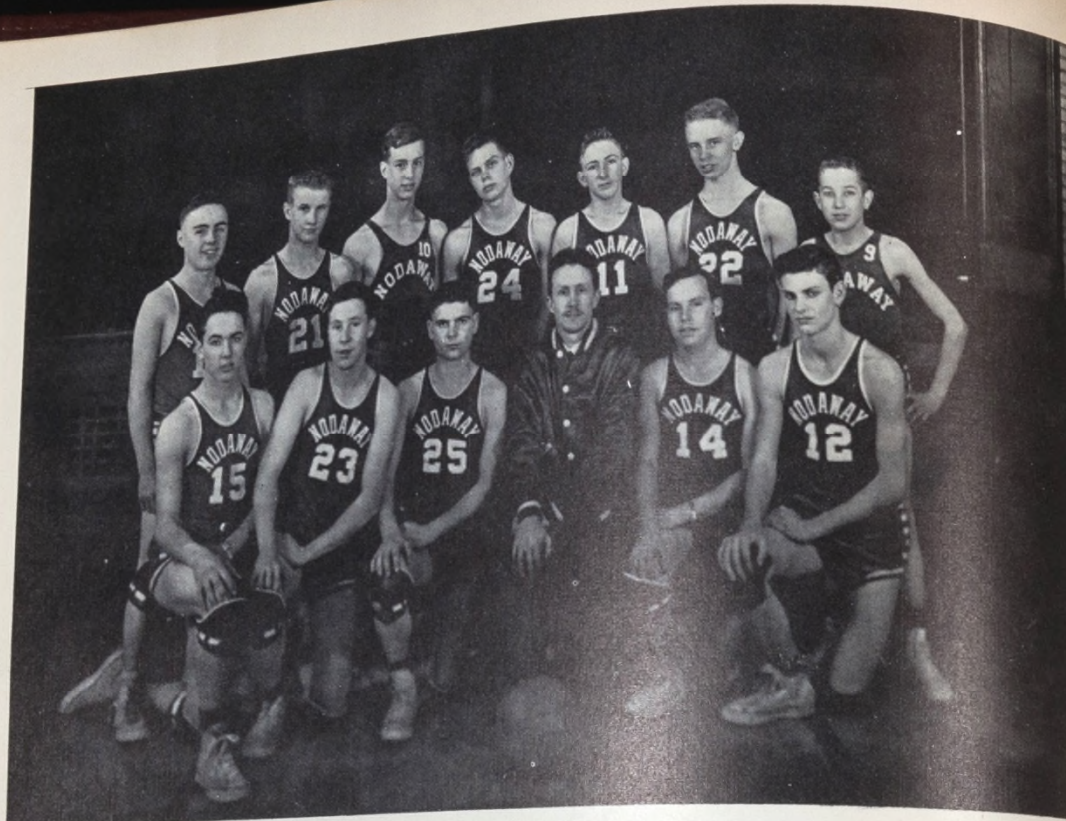

The 10 boys in the Boys' Music Group - Donald Williams, Keith Jett, Olin Hamman, Lowell Davis, Clyde Williams, Jim Barker, David March, Don Narigon, Loren Agnew, Max Walter - helped with various programs throughout the year. At Christmas time, they assisted the girls with "The Hallelujah Chorus".

Besides entering the Girls' Glee Club, the music people entered 12 events in the music contests this year, which included 10 solos, in addition to the Girls' Trio and Sextette. The soloists: Treble Voice Medium - Mary Lou Walter, Joyce Barker; Treble Voice Low - Wilma Everett, Elsie Mae McCuen, Janet Guss; Tenor - Loren Agnew; Baritone - Donald Williams, Lowell Davis, Jim Barker; Bass - Clyde Williams.

Nodaway received 6 Division II ratings: Girls' Trio, Girls' Sextette, Solos - Mary Lou Walter, Wilma Everett, Donald Williams, Clyde Williams.

All in all, the music people have had a big musical year, assisting with school, church, and civic programs. May they have an even bigger year ahead!
